ADR proceeding as an opportunity on the energy market

Mr. Janusz Gwiazdowski – the Coordinator for negotiations to the President of the ERO and Mrs. Monika Stachura managing the Coordinator’s Staff at the Energy Regulatory Office on October 18th, 2019 participated in 2nd Energy Forum of Science and Economy (II Energetyczne Forum Nauki i Gospodarki) titled “Opportunities and risks for energy market participants”.

The honorary patronage of the event was provided by Messrs. Krzysztof Tchórzewski – Minister of Energy and Rafał Gawin - President of the Energy Regulatory Office.

The forum was opened by prof. Celina Nowak – Director of the Institute of Law Studies Polish Institute of Sciences and Mr. Michał Holeksa – Vice President of Office of Competition and Consumer Protection. Speeches were also given by Messrs. Tomasz Świetlicki – Director of the Department of Energy and Heating of the Ministry of Energy and Zdzisław Muras PhD – Director of the Legal and Dispute Resolution Department of the Energy Regulatory Office.

As a part of the first session of the conference Mr. Janusz Gwiazdowski and Mrs. Monika Stachura presented a speech titled “ADR proceedings before the Coordinator for negotiations to the President of the ERO as a tool for conflict management on the household electricity market.”

The above mentioned speech met with lively interest and comprehension amongst the auditorium, in particular the issue of the usefulness of the Coordinator’s institution and the proceeding conducted by it for the market and its groups, which were emphasized by the Vice President of the OCCP.

A detailed photo report from the event is available on the co-organizer’s website:
